

THE ANT AND THE GRASSHOPPER

CHARACTERS:

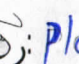

NARRATOR 1:

NARRATOR 2:

READER 1: THE ANT

READER 2: THE GRASSHOPPER

: On a hot summer's day, a grasshopper was hopping and playing around.

  : Play, play, play play play
We like to play and play
團體朗誦

: He saw an ant pass by with some food on his back.

  : Work, work, work work work,
We have to work and work.

: Why don't you come and have fun with me?

: I'm getting some food for the winter.
You should do the same.

: Winter is still far away.
It's summer now.
It's time to have some fun.

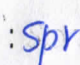

: The ant kept working hard.

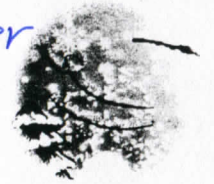

: He built his house—

: And got food for the winter.

: The grasshopper had nothing for the coming winter.

   : Spring, summer, fall and winter.
We work in the summer
And rest in the winter.
Spring, summer, fall and winter

: Winter came.

: The ant was safe and warm.

 : But the grasshopper was hungry and cold.

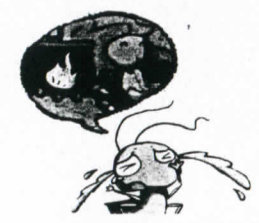

: He looked for something to eat.

: I'm hungry.
I need food to eat.

: Why didn't you get food in the summer?

: The grasshopper was cold.
He looked for a place to stay.

: I'm cold. I need a place to stay.

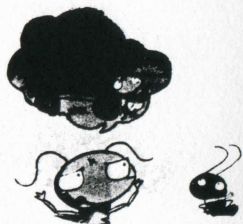

: Why didn't you build a house in the summer?

: The grasshopper was hungry and cold.

: I should do something before the winter, just like you do.

: If you play all summer, you will have nothing all winter.

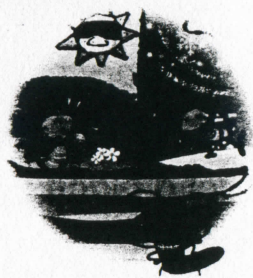

: If you play all summer, you will have nothing all winter.

: There is a time for work and a time for play.

: We should work hard for the future every day.

: Spring, summer, fall and winter.
We work in the summer
And rest in the winter.
Spring, summer, fall and winter.
